

Passport Holders of the following countries are exempt from visas for South Africa

The citizen who is a holder of a national passport / travel document of the following is not required to hold a visa in respect of an intended stay of 90 days or less and when in transit:

African Union Laissez Passer
Antigua and Barbuda
Andorra
Argentina
Australia
Austria
Barbados
Belgium
Belize
Benin
Bolivia
Botswana
Brazil
Canada
Cape Verde
Chile
Costa Rica
Cyprus
Czech Republic
Denmark
Ecuador
Finland
France
Gabon
Germany
Greece
Guyana
Hong Kong
Hungary
Iceland
Israel
Italy
Jamaica
Japan
Jordan
Lesotho
Liechtenstein
Luxemburg
Malta
Malaysia
Malawi
Maldives
Mauritius
Monaco
Mozambique
Namibia
Netherlands
New Zealand
Norway
Paraguay
Peru
Poland
Portugal
San Marino
Seychelles
Singapore
Slovak Republic
South Korea
Spain
St Vincent & the Grenadines
Swaziland
Sweden
Switzerland
Thailand
Turkey
United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, British Islands Bailiwick of Guernsey and Jersey, Isle of Man and Virgin Islands, Republic of Ireland, and British Overseas Territories
Uruguay
United States of America
Venezuela
Zambia

Passport Holders of the following countries do require a visa for South Africa:

Albania
Algeria
Angola
Anguilla
Bermuda
British Antarctic Territory
British Indian Ocean Territory
Bulgaria
Cayman Islands
Comoros
Croatia
Egypt
Falkland Islands
Gibraltar
Guinea
India
Ivory Coast
Kenya
Macau
Madagascar
Mexico
Montserrat
Morocco
Pitcairn, Henderson, St. Helena, Ducie and Oeno Islands
Romania
Rwanda
Slovak
Slovenia
Sovereign Base Area of Akrotiri and Dhekelia
Tanzania
Tunisia
Turks and Caicos Island
Vietnam
Zimbabwe